

A little more than "How are you?"

Your free Around the Table mini: six gentle questions and a tiny keepsake. Passing is always welcome.

Make it a conversation

Choose one question at the table or during a quiet moment. Read aloud, answer in a drawing, or let a child whisper an answer to a grown-up. Ask before recording someone's story.

What tiny thing made you smile lately?

Who taught you something you still use?

What is something you want to make?

What helps you feel welcome?

What is a small kindness you noticed?

What would you like us to do together?

Keep one tiny detail.

Write, draw or ask a grown-up to capture your words.

One moment I liked

One thing I would like to do together again
